Position of NTi Audio AG concerning REACH obligations

NTi Audio AG is a worldwide leading company for the design and production of Audio Test & Measurement systems that are distributed through our international sales network.

We hereby confirm that all NTi Audio AG products meet the obligations of REACH regulation EC 1907/2006, i.e. that none of our articles exceed the threshold of 0.1% (w/w) of SVHC (Substances of Very High Concern) as listed by the European Chemicals Agency (ECHA).

This statement is based on our own best knowledge, and on the information provided by our suppliers of components, modules or assembled devices.

If you need further information, please contact NTi Audio AG.
